Remembering Student Representative to the Board of Curators, Remington Williams –

Board Chair Chatman called for a moment of silence in memory of Remington Williams.

It was endorsed by President Choi, recommended by Chair Chatman, moved by Curator Wenneker, and seconded by Curator Hoberock, that the following resolution recognizing the dedicated service of Remington R. Williams, JD to the University be approved:

, Remington R. Williams, JD was appointed as Student Representative to the Board of Curators by Governor Mike Parson on July 14, 2020 and served with distinction as the voice of the student body for the Board; and

, Remington was committed and involved while working with the Board and developed a working relationship with the curators that made him effective in representing student interests. He was a dedicated, articulate spokesperson as he effectively and professionally represented the diverse interests and priorities of students of the UM System; and

, he was passionate about service to the entire university community and about making a difference for faculty and staff, as well as students; and

, Remington developed and prized personal relationships with other student leaders, and was known for his spontaneous visits and phone calls, and for being willing to have a long, in-depth conversation at a moment's notice; and

Curator Darryl Chatman stated: "Remington was an outstanding individual and a tremendous asset to the Board of Curators. He was actively engaged with the students at each of our four universities and worked to amplify their successes, promote their stories, and ensure that their concerns were heard."; and

, Remington grew as a leader while in this role. He cared about accessibility, serving on the UM System Digital Accessibility Taskforce, which culminated in the passage of the new Digital Accessibility Policy, Collected Rule and Regulation 600.090, at the April 21, 2022 Board of Curators meeting; and pursuing his Master of Business Administration degree as a member of the inaugural cohort of the University of Missouri-St. Louis Online MBA program; and

, while earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and Spanish from Georgetown College, Remington served as student body president, president of his fraternity, and vice president of the Georgetown Activities Council; worked for the men's basketball team; was an active member of both the Accountability Board and Honor Council; and during that time, graduated from the four-
